If you do not have any of the acceptable forms of ID, you may be able to obtain a free voter ID from the Office of the Secretary of State. For more information visit <http://www.sos.ri.gov/elections> or call (401) 222-2340.

If you are unable to present acceptable identification at the polling place, you will be required to cast a provisional ballot. The local Board of Canvassers will compare the signature on the provisional ballot application and compare it to the signature on your most recent registration form and determine its qualification. RIGL § 17-19-24.3.

You will have until the close of business the next business day after the election to provide information to the Board of Canvassers to help qualify your provisional ballot.

For more information, visit <http://www.elections.ri.gov> or contact your local Board of Canvassers.
